

“I Am The Law” Podcast Library

Sponsorship Period: April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023

The “I Am The Law” library includes all active episodes that have been published for more than six weeks (individually, an “Episode” and, collectively, the “Episodes”). If any new episode is published during the sponsorship period, the episode will not become part of the “I Am The Law” library until six weeks after its initial publication. On April 1, 2023, we will have 52 Episodes in the library with plans to release some new Episodes prior to June 30, 2023. LSAC may make any episode inactive at any time without prior notice. Your sponsorship message will appear on all active Episodes in the “I Am The Law” library during the sponsorship period, beginning on April 1, 2023, and ending on June 30, 2023. For a list of the active episodes, you may contact LSAC.
